Charity Watch

Nov 24, 2025

This Giving Tuesday, many charities and other types of organizations will flood your inbox and social media feeds with emotional appeals. Some of them, however, may not be worthy of your donations. CharityWatch has identified several problematic charities that are fundraising for Giving Tuesday 2025.

Participation in the GivingTuesday campaign is open to any individual, community organization, grassroots group, or business. In other words, even those that are not registered charities or not charities at all may participate and use Giving Tuesday promotional materials. According to the campaign's FAQ, "all nonprofits, community organizations, registered charities, non-registered charities, and volunteer groups are automatically eligible to participate." So when you see a charity using the GivingTuesday branding or promotional logo, that does not signal that the organization has been vetted for financial efficiency, transparency, or governance standards. Donors should not assume that participation implies any endorsement or evaluation of the organization's practices.

QUOTATION GALLERY

"Though defensive violence will always be 'a sad necessity' in the eyes of men of principle, it would be still more unfortunate if wrongdoers should dominate just men."
- St. Augustine

"A new idea is first condemned as ridiculous, and then dismissed as trivial, until finally it becomes what everybody knows." -
William James

"This is the real task before us: to reassert our commitment as a nation to a law higher than our own, to renew our spiritual strength. Only by building a wall of such spiritual resolve can we, as a free people, hope to protect our own heritage and make it someday the birthright of all men." --Ronald Reagan

A patriot must always be ready to defend his country against his government."
-- Edward Abbey

"War is an ugly thing, but not the ugliest of things; the decayed and degraded state of moral and patriotic feeling which thinks nothing worth a war, is worse. A man who has nothing which he cares more about than he does about his personal safety is a miserable creature who has no chance at being free, unless made and kept so by the exertions of better men than himself."
John Stuart Mill

"A free people ought not only to be armed and disciplined, but they should have sufficient arms and ammunition to maintain a status of independence from any who might attempt to abuse them, which would include their own government." ~~~George Washington

"I'd rather entrust the government of the United States to the first 400 people listed in the Boston telephone directory than to the faculty of Harvard University."
William F. Buckley, Jr.

"Conservatives are enemies of the government. Liberals are enemies of the nation because they are not enemies of the government."
Aristotle the Hun

"If we knew what it was we were doing, it would not be called

Thomas Paine

"A nation that substitutes emotion and empathy for rational thought will eventually digress into the Dark Ages,"

Congressman Steve King (R-IA),

INTEGRITY: The highest courage is to dare to be ourself in the face of adversity. Choosing ethics over convenience and truth over popularity means there is never a wrong time to do the right thing.

There is no creature more dangerous to civilization than the "idealist".

Of all tyrannies, a tyranny sincerely exercised for the good of its victims may be the most oppressive. It would be better to live under robber barons than under omnipotent moral busybodies.

The robber baron's cruelty may sometimes sleep, his cupidity may at some point be satiated; but those who torment us for our own good will torment us without end for they do so with the approval of their own conscience.

They may be more likely to go to
